

Going Home

by Jim Meads

Forewords by HRH The Prince of Wales and Mason H Lampton (Midland Foxhounds, Georgia)

PUBLISHED BY QUILLER - PRICE £30.00

Jim Meads is the world's foremost hunting photographer. In this wonderful new (and sadly his last) book, Jim's brilliant photographs truly capture the atmosphere and camaraderie of hunting, its hounds, its characters, the frightening fences and above all its tradition. Sections of the book include nostalgia, characters, heroes, hunt staff and specific types of jumps.

It is a sign of the tremendous respect and high esteem in which Jim is held that HRH The Prince of Wales has granted him the rare honour of writing a foreword to this delightful book.
